IASC is an association of young international arbitration practitioners founded in 2016 that provides legal training aiming to foster a deeper understanding of arbitration as a peaceful and effective means of dispute resolution. All IASC programs are supervised by its Academic Council formed by leading practitioners in the field:

- Andrea Bjorklund, McGill University
- Anne Marie Whitesell, Georgetown University
- Loukas Mistelis, Queen Mary University of London
- José Ricardo Feris, Squire Patton Boggs
- Stefan Kröll, Director of the Willem C. Vis Arbitration Moot
- Alejandro Garro, Columbia University
- Pilar Perales, Universidad Carlos III de Madrid
- Juan Fernández-Armesto, Armesto & Asociados Árbitros
- Gabrielle Kaufmann-Kohler, Lévy Kaufmann-Kohler

CO-CHAIRS:

- Mélanie Riofrio Piché, Armesto & Asociados Árbitros
- Felipe Aragón, Independent Arbitration Counsel

GoArb is one of the programs organized by IASC. It is a one-week introductory course on international arbitration based on the analysis of a mock case. GoArb holds editions all over the world with the collaboration of arbitral institutions, chambers of commerce, universities and young arbitration groups. The 2019 Madrid edition of GoArb is organized with the collaboration of Universidad Carlos III de Madrid.

COORDINATORS:

- Celia Cañete Fernández, Law Degree Student
- Pablo Arellano Romero, Arias SLP
- Yaiza Araque Moreno, Counsel at Madrid Court of Arbitration
